Morals of the Federal Metropolis-A Rich Scene.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald relates the following lic streets of the Federal metropolis:

Yesterday an affair of crime occurred at the corner of 13th and F sts., which occasioned considerable excitement...— The wife of a Massachusestts officer, board-ing in the neighborhood, had discovered an amatory correspondence between her husband and a married lady residing at of the war, and that it was an unjustifiable plot against the commerce of the world. Eari Russell says a second remonstrance has been made warning Seward

MARTIN SHARP, J. D. Johnson,

A. H. Crandall.

WHEREAS, AN ATTACHMENT HAVING been issued and levied upon the property of said defendant who is a non-resident of the State of Tennessee, and a conditional judgment having been rendered by me in favor of said plaintiff to said defendant on the 18th day of January, 1862, it is therefore ordered by me that publication be made for four successive weeks in the Athens Post, a newspaper published in Athens, Tennessee, notifying said A. H. Crandall, to appear at my office in Roane county, no or by the 18th day of August, 1862, and show cause why judgment final should not or rendered parte, MARTIN SHARP, J. P. for Roune co. Feb. 7, 1862-4t-pra fee $3-628

PROSPECTUS

THE EAST TENNESSEEAN. IT IS PROPOSED BY THE SUBSCRIBERS to establish and publish, in the city of Knox-Evet Tenaresecan." The issues of the paper will be Weekly and Tri Weekly. The first number will appear on or before the 15th of February next. It will be the aim and policy of "2 he East Ten-It will be the aim and policy of "The East Tennesseeaa" to support and sustain, with all its power and influence, the Government of the Confederate States, in its present war for independence.
Discarding the dissensions and feuds of the past,
it will endeaver to rise above the angry bickerings and prejudices of local and partisan factions, to the legitimate sphere of high-toned journalism.
It will take for its guide those great principles of Constitutional liberty which underlie our Republican institutions, and will labor zealously and persistently for the common good of our people, as promoted by an unity of feeling and action, by a just administration of, and cheerful submission to, the Constitution and laws of the land, and by the development of our own great internal re-

ing wrong, wherever and in whomseever found, with equal impartiality.

The News Department of "The East Temesseem" will receive especial attention. The latest intelligence up to the hour of publication—both foreign and demestic, telegraphic and selected—will be promptly given through its columns. Arrangements will soon be completed with correspondents in the various divisions of our army in Kentucky, Virginia and elsewhere, by which our readers will be regularly supplied with intelligence from the theatre of war. No expense will be spared necessary to make "The East Tennesseean" a first class newspaper.

Dec 6, 1861-2m-589 EXTENSIVE SMOKE HOUSE, WITH GREAT FACILITIES FOR Curing Bacon, for Early Trade.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS PROVIDED himself with a LARGE BRICK and FIRE PROOF SMOKE HOUSE, upon his own premises, in the rear of his Store situated on South side of Broad street, where he is prepared to receive large quantities of PORK IN SALT, which can be converted into BACON with recat facility, and offered to the trade from ONE TO TWO MONTHS EARLIER than is done by shippers from Tennessee and other points, and, as a consequence, great advantages are experienced by the shippers, growing out of small losses in weight, as compared with those incident to shipment during the spring and summer mouths; and also the QUICK SALES which are made, thus taking off the joints at an early day, before the development of taint from seast of thorough salting; and also obvinting the greatest of all difficulties with joints—the attack of files.

The undersigned has had several neasons experience in the above process of Curing Bacon, and can confidently affirm that the advantages to be derived by SMOKING IN THIS MARKET are equal to ONE TO THREE CENTS PER POUND in the price of the Meat liself; and is done in a style greatly experience to anything which is seat here from other points, thereby rendering it more attractice to the buyer and lucrative to the shipper.
